

You are invited to “The Teddy Bear Toss”

The Vancouver branch of the Canadian Institute of Geomatics, CIG, invites you to attend a social meeting and a Vancouver Giants Hockey Game. The Giants play the Swift Current Broncos and this is one of their special events nights. At the Teddy Bear Toss, all fans are invited to bring along a stuffed Teddy Bear or toy. When the Giants score their first goal, everyone gets to toss their toy onto the ice. The toys are collected and donated to help needy families during the holiday season.

Last year, I was in row 1 and I was the personal recipient of toys that were tossed directly to the back of my head, instead of onto the ice - the hazards of sitting near people who can't throw. This year, being older and wiser, the tickets are in rows 4,5, 6 and 7 in Section E. This is a wonderful event. The sight of thousands of teddy bears being tossed onto the ice is something that you won't soon forget. Come out and be one of the Teddy Bear tossers. I've heard that in England, calling someone a tosser, is an insult, but at this event everyone wants to be a tosser. Hope to see you at the social and at the game.

Prior to the game you are invited to the Pacific Dining Lounge in the Pacific Coliseum. It's a great place to have a snack and a beer and socialize with the other Teddy Bear tossers.
